

KRANNERT ART MUSEUM

Gallery Guidelines

FINE + APPLIED
ARTS

Please enjoy your visit to Krannert Art Museum.

To protect the works of art, we request that you follow the gallery guidelines below.

The following items are prohibited in all galleries:

- Backpacks, bags, or bulky objects larger than 11" x 16" x 6"
(Lockers are available and require a 25 cent deposit.)
- Pens, markers, paint, or other artist materials
(Pencils are allowed.)
- Food or drink
- Firearms or weapons of any kind
- Animals, except for service animals

Please refrain from the following activities:

- Touching the artwork
- Leaning against the walls, doors, and fixtures
- Running, shouting, or rowdiness
- Smoking indoors or outside. The University of Illinois is a smoke-free campus.
- Flash photography

Accessibility Information

- Wheelchairs and seated walkers are available at each entrance.
- Elevators are located in the Kinkead Pavilion and the Peabody Street Lobby near the café.

Photography

Museum patrons, students, and faculty:

- Photography/videography of the museum's collection using a handheld camera, is allowed for non-commercial use only. See a security guard for details.
- Artwork on loan to the museum may not be photographed without express written permission.

Professional photographers/videographers:

- Professional photography must be scheduled in advance with a KAM staff member. See a security guard for details.

General guidelines:

- No flash or additional lights are allowed.
- No tripods or monopods are allowed.
- Krannert Art Museum respects all applicable copyright law. It is the responsibility of the photographer to ensure that copyright permission is obtained and all laws are observed.
- KAM reserves the right to withdraw permission to photograph in the museum.