Movement Poem Worksheet

1. In the box below, write down words that you think of when you look at the artwork. List as many as you can!

Questions to think about if you get stuck:
- What color is it?
- What material is it made from?
- How does it make you feel?
- What kinds of lines and shapes do you see?
- How old do you think it is?
- Does it remind you of anything?
- If it came to life, how would it move or sound?
2. Underline 4–7 words that you think are the most important.

3. Think of some different ways you can arrange your words to create a poem. Mix words around and say them out loud!

4. Write your final poem below:

5. What kinds of movements can you create for each word in your poem?
